A Day of Transformation

WHW recently partnered with Taller San Jose to provide a day of transformation for 14 soon-to-be graduates of the agency partner's Construction Academy. Taller San Jose's program provided the at-risk youth with a 16 week training program that focused on the fundamentals of construction and employment readiness skills.

WHW volunteers spent the afternoon with the young men helping them to select a complete interview outfit that included a suit, shirt, tie, socks and shoes. Armed with new skills and a new professional look, these young men are on their way to employment success and a productive adulthood!
