Santa Ana, California (Friday, April 10, 2015) - On Saturday, May 16, 2015, more than 250 supporters of WHW (Women Helping Women/Men2Work) will gather from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at The Island Hotel in Newport Beach for WHW’s annual themed gourmet luncheon and fashion show to raise funds and awareness and celebrate WHW’s Employment Success Program. The Employment Success Program provides employment support services at no charge to over 6,000 disadvantaged, low-income and challenged Orange County job seekers every year, preparing men, women and teens to get and keep good jobs empowering them to become economically self-sufficient.

This year’s event will celebrate the happy days of job seekers who retain employment because of the services they received from WHW. The 50’s retro event, which is being sponsored by WHW Corporate Partners, Capital Group, Premier Business Centers, Carsmetics and First Bank, will feature a robust silent auction of over 75 donated items, a fun and lively fashion show hosted by WHW’s Retail Shop, Déjà New, a gourmet luncheon and inspirational stories of employment success.

So whether you’ve always wanted an excuse to dress like Marilyn Monroe and Humphrey Bogart or like Shirley, LaVern and the Fonz, this will be the place, as you spend a fun afternoon rockin’ and rollin’ for a cause!
